

The Policy Centre for African Peoples cordially invites you to its

2nd African Diaspora Summer Festival

The event will include:

- A screening of the documentary ‘We Face Forward: The Ecobank Story’ – This business documentary (Africa Channel, 2012) follows the story of how the Ecobank founders’ dream of economic integration in West Africa is now a reality and has spread across the continent to over 30 nations
- Performance by the band Africa Jambo
 - A debate on the topic ‘Doing Business in Africa with a Pan-African Outlook’

Debaters:

- Caleb Tamfu, Managing Director, Andron Engineering Ltd & Country Director, Africa 2.0
- Sylvie Aboa-Bradwell, Founder, Policy Centre for African Peoples & CEO, Medzan Lifestyle Ltd
- Theo Omambala, Ex Top Model & Creative Director Founder, TVLHC

Chair: Henry Bonsu, International Broadcaster

Date and Time: Thursday 31st July 2014, 5pm -9pm

Venue: Room A130, City University, Northampton Square

London EC1V 0HB (nearest underground station: Angel)

Registration (free): info@policycap.org / 01634 5736 19

2nd African Diaspora Summer Festival

Thursday 31st July 2014, 5pm -9pm, Room A130, City University, Northampton Square,
London EC1V 0HB

PROGRAMME

5.00 – 5.35 Arrival and registration of guests

5.35 – 5.40 Welcome by Ms Rima Amin, City University Students Union's Vice President, and introduction by Mr Henry Bonsu, International Broadcaster & event's Chair

5.40 – 6.30 Screening of the documentary 'We Face Forward: The Ecobank Story' (kindly donated by The Africa Channel). This business documentary (Africa Channel, 2012) follows the story of how the Ecobank founders' dream of economic integration in West Africa is now a reality and has spread across the continent to over 30 nations

6.30 – 6.40 Thoughts on the documentary by Ms Sylvie Aboa-Bradwell, Founder, Policy Centre for African Peoples & CEO, Medzan Lifestyle Ltd

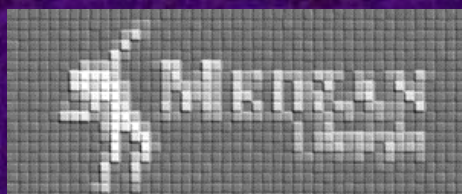

6.40 – 6.50 Musical break: performance by the band Africa Jambo, an outstanding trio of Pan-African musicians (Kawele acoustic guitar from the DRC, Rama Saxophone from Tanzania, and Kasamba percussion from Uganda).

6.50 – 7.30 'Doing Business in Africa with a Pan-African Outlook', debate chaired by Mr Henry Bonsu, with Mr Caleb Tamfu, Managing Director at Andron Engineering Ltd & Country Director, Africa 2.0; Ms Sylvie Aboa-Bradwell; and Ms Theo Omambala, Ex Top Model & Creative Director Founder, TVLHC

7.30 - 8.15 Questions and Answers

8.15 -9.00 Sponsors' slot, refreshments, networking and departure

Supported by:

Medzan Lifestyle Ltd www.medzanlifestyle.com

Sport-in Union[®]