

The Policy Centre for African Peoples cordially invites you to its

2nd African Diaspora Summer Festival

The event will include:

- A screening of the documentary 'We Face Forward: The Ecobank Story'
- A debate on the topic 'Harnessing the Economic Potential of Pan-Africanism in the 21st Century'

Debaters:

- Caleb Tamfu, Analyst at RBS & Country Director, Africa 2.0
- Sylvie Aboa-Bradwell, Founder, Policy Centre for African Peoples & CEO, Medzan Lifestyle Ltd
- Theo Omambala, Top Model & Creative Director Founder, TVLHC

Chair: Henry Bonsu, International Broadcaster

Date and Time: Thursday 31st July 2014, 5pm -9pm

Venue: Room A130, City University, Northampton Square

London EC1V 0HB (nearest underground station: Angel)

Registration: info@policypc.org / 01634 5736 19

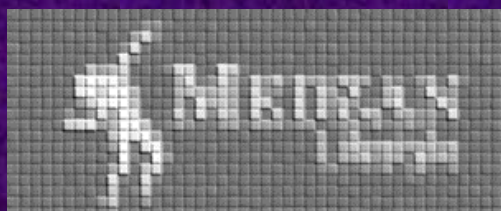

2nd African Diaspora Summer Festival

Thursday 31st July 2014, 5pm -9pm, Room A130, City University,
Northampton Square, London EC1V 0HB

PROGRAMME

- 5.00 – 5.35 Arrival and registration of guests
- 5.35 – 5.40 Welcome by Ms Rima Amin, City University Students Union's Vice President, and introduction by Mr Henry Bonsu, International Broadcaster & event's Chair
- 5.40 – 6.30 Screening of the documentary 'We Face Forward: The Ecobank Story (kindly donated by The Africa Channel)
- 6.30 – 6.40 Thoughts on the documentary by Ms Sylvie Aboa-Bradwell, Founder, Policy Centre for African Peoples & CEO, Medzan Lifestyle Ltd
- 6.40 – 7.30 'Harnessing the Economic Potential of Pan-Africanism in the 21st Century', debate chaired by Mr Henry Bonsu, with Mr Caleb Tamfu, Analyst at RBS & Country Director, Africa 2.0; Ms Sylvie Aboa-Bradwell; and Ms Theo Omambala, Top Model & Creative Director Founder, TVLHC
- 7.30 - 8.15 Questions and Answers
- 8.15 -9.00 Sponsors' slot, refreshments, networking and departure

Supported by:

Medzan Lifestyle Ltd www.medzanlifestyle.com